

--- On Thu, 26/3/09, FEDERAL RESERVE BANK , NEW YORK

<operation@federalreservebnk-ny.net> wrote:

From: FEDERAL RESERVE BANK , NEW YORK <operation@federalreservebnk-ny.net>

Subject: Leter of Guarantee from Federal Reserve Bank.

To: b [REDACTED]@yahoo.com

Date: Thursday, 26 March, 2009, 3:15 PM

Attention Mrs. S [REDACTED].

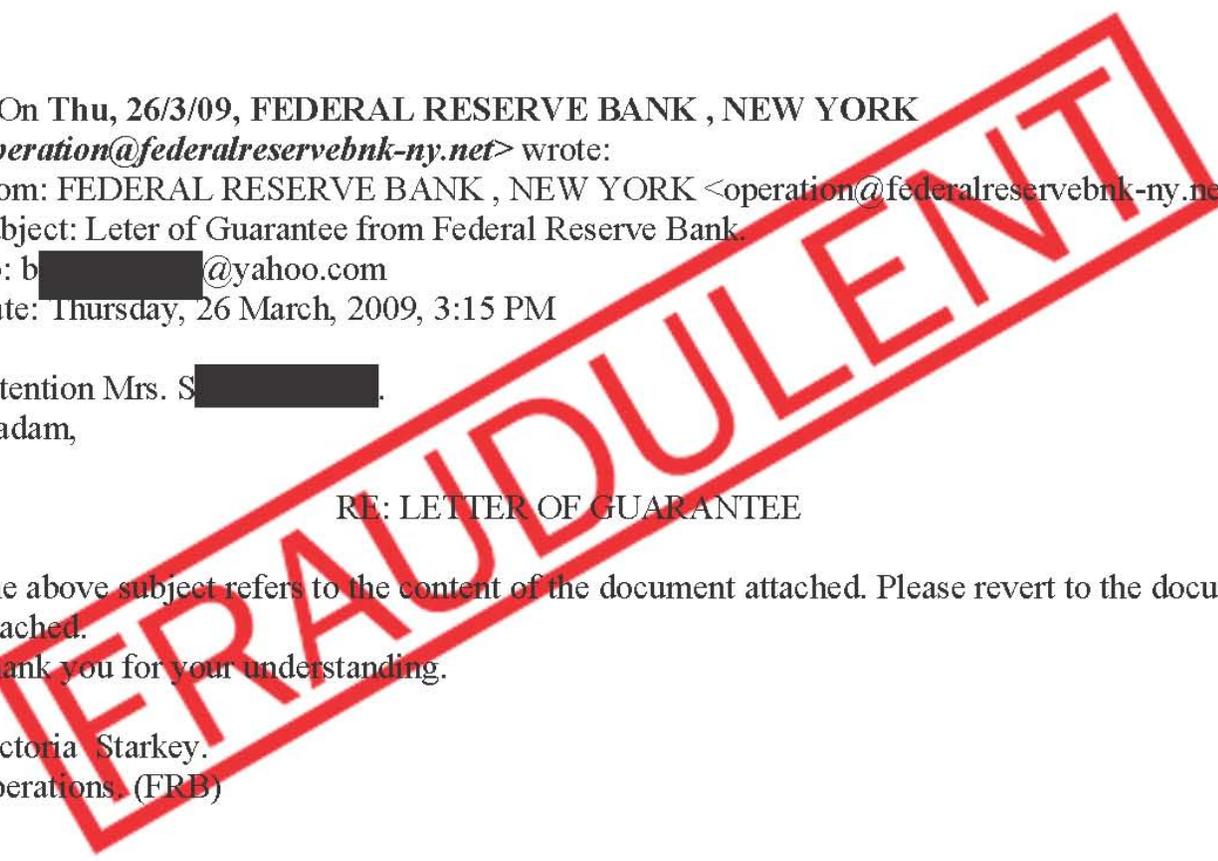

Madam,

RE: LETTER OF GUARANTEE

The above subject refers to the content of the document attached. Please revert to the document attached.

Thank you for your understanding.

Victoria Starkey.
Operations. (FRB)

FOREIGN OPERATIONS DEPARTMENT
33 LIBERTY STREET, NEW YORK, NY 10045
TEL/1-646-291-8959
FAX: 1-206-202-1801

Date: 03 - 26 -2009

Attn: MRS. B [REDACTED]

Madam,

GUARANTEE FOR PAYMENT

Sorry for the manner that I crave your indulgence, my name is Mrs. Victoria Starkey, Director of Operation, Federal Reserve Bank New York. I write in respect of the fund transfer of US$25,000,000.00 in your favour.

In respect of this, a meeting was held by this office with the management of the bank which necessitates this letter of guarantee.

You are hereby assured that as soon as you pay the fees already calculated at £3,500.00, your fund will be remitted to your desired account as have been approved by the transfer Unit.

You are advised to maintain contact with all relevant officials of the bank for directives and clearance.

Finally on behalf of the management of the bank, we congratulate you in anticipation of the successful completion of your transfer procedure.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. Victoria Starkey
Director, Foreign Operations Department
Federal Reserve Bank