The Collateral Monitor shall not be liable for, and the Bank shall indemnify and hold the Collateral Monitor harmless against, any cost, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees), liability or claim ("Losses") incurred by or asserted against the Bank or the Collateral Monitor arising out of or in connection with the performance by the Collateral Monitor of its obligations under this Agreement, except for those arising out of the Collateral Monitor's breach of any representation, warranty or covenant herein or its gross negligence, fraud, bad faith or willful misconduct. The Collateral Monitor will use its best judgment and practices to model the CMBS at issue using third party data and other available sources. While the Collateral Monitor's analyses performed to create the reports are based on information the Collateral Monitor in good faith deems to be reliable, the Collateral Monitor in no case guarantees their accuracy or completeness. The Bank acknowledges that significant professional disagreement exists regarding the accuracy and validity of these types of analyses and methodologies, and that there is no assurance that the analyses and methodologies used by the Collateral Monitor or provided by the Collateral Monitor are or will be appropriate for the Bank or the CMBS.

The Bank acknowledges and agrees, subject to the Collateral Monitor's obligations in Section 5.1 below that (a) the Services to be provided by the Collateral Monitor, including its analyses, are solely estimated and advisory in nature and should only be relied upon by the Bank as such; (b) if the Collateral Monitor or its affiliates owns (for itself or on behalf of its clients) any of the CUSIPs covered by this Agreement, the valuations used by the Collateral Monitor for portfolio management purposes may differ from those provided to the Bank as part of the Services due to the Collateral Monitor's fund requirements (e.g., fund pricing policies and price sourcing protocols); (c) the Collateral Monitor is not serving as an investment advisor or fiduciary, or making any investment recommendations or soliciting any action based on its Services; (d) the Bank will be solely responsible for forming its own judgments as to accounting treatment and the eligibility of any of the CUSIPs under the TALF Program; and (e) the Bank is solely responsible for the adoption, implementation and management of any advice or recommendations provided hereunder. Accordingly, the Collateral Monitor will not be responsible or have any liability for any actions or conclusions drawn by the Bank with respect to any matter, whether or not such conclusions are based to any extent on the Services provided by the Collateral Monitor except where such actions or conclusions of the Bank were taken based on a breach of the Collateral Monitor's duties under this Agreement and consistent with Section 4.2.

The Bank may amend such Schedule C from time to time by written notice to the Collateral Monitor. The Collateral Monitor shall continue to rely upon these instructions until notified by the Bank to the contrary.

Section 4.5 Force Majeure. The Collateral Monitor shall be responsible for maintaining and preserving its operations, facilities and systems (including its computer and communication systems) in a manner consistent with commercial standards prevalent in its industry. The preceding sentence shall not relieve the Collateral Monitor from seeking to perform its obligations under the force majeure in a timely manner in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Collateral Monitor shall provide the Bank with written notice of any material failure or delay resulting from force majeure, to the extent known to Collateral Monitor.

Any such inspection or audit will be conducted during the Collateral Monitor’s normal business hours. The Collateral Monitor will cooperate fully in making its premises, all relevant information related to its performance pursuant to this Agreement, and its personnel available to such auditors. The Collateral Monitor acknowledges that the foregoing paragraph is not intended to limit the review rights that the Government Accountability Office, U.S. Treasury or the Office of the Special Inspector General of the TARP Program may have with respect thereto.

Section 4.9 Maintenance of Records. The Collateral Monitor shall keep and retain and make easily accessible all Records. The Collateral Monitor shall not destroy or release any such Records (i) at any time prior to the fifth anniversary of the Termination Date and (ii) unless it has first provided at least one month’s written notice to the Bank of its intent to destroy such Records and, upon request of the Bank, delivered copies of all Records to or as directed by the Bank.

(B) refrain from purchasing for himself or herself the Restricted CMBS, without prior consent of the Chief Compliance Officer of the Bank.

The Bank acknowledges that the persons subject to the restrictions in (ii) above shall be permitted to provide advisory, analytical, reporting or valuation services to other clients with respect to CMBS securities, including providing general market views and market views related to CMBS securities, provided that no Confidential Information is disclosed in connection with such activities and such services are not provided in respect of TALF-related investment decisions. The six-week period set forth in (ii) above shall commence at the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and (y) such time as an individual no longer has access to Confidential Information regarding the Restricted CMBS.

(c) The Collateral Monitor shall diligently undertake (i) security measures to prevent unauthorized access to facilities where Confidential Information is stored, (ii) security measures to detect and prevent unauthorized access to computer equipment and data storage devices that contain or transmit Confidential Information, (iii) periodic training to ensure that persons receiving Confidential Information know their obligations contemplated hereby and (iv) programs designed to ensure compliance with this Agreement and federal securities laws, including contractual restrictions and laws relating to insider trading.
(d) The Collateral Monitor shall immediately notify the Bank of any discovered or suspected cases of the unauthorized access, use, disclosure or loss of Confidential Information. Upon request of the Bank, the Collateral Monitor shall conduct an investigation and render a detailed report on the cause and impact of the breach and the remedial actions taken in response.

Such mitigation plan shall include (a) details concerning the implementation of the plan, including its plan to mitigate any such conflicts, (b) maintain a log of all conflicts identified during the term of this Agreement and indicate whether the conflict is mitigated by existing policies or has been escalated to the Bank for waiver and (c) clear and specific plans as to how it will notify the Bank of any such conflicts identified in the course of its performance of its obligations under this Agreement.

The Collateral Monitor shall promptly notify the Bank of any additional potential conflicts of interest when they arise and cooperate with the Bank in determining whether any additional policies or procedures are necessary in response.

The Collateral Monitor shall also advise the Bank in writing of the ten largest loans related to commercial properties (in which the Collateral Monitor or its affiliates have an interest) that are included as collateral assets of any Restricted CMBS, and the Collateral Monitor shall respond to reasonable requests for additional similar disclosures from time to time. The Bank acknowledges that the Collateral Monitor has provided the Bank with such initial required disclosure.

(a) Each Legacy CMBS that meets all the current eligibility requirements included in the TALF Standing Loan Facility Procedures ("TALF-Eligible Legacy CMBS");

(b) Each Legacy CMBS that meets all the current eligibility requirements included in the TALF Standing Loan Facility Procedures except for the ratings-based eligibility requirements ("Downgraded/Negative Watch Legacy CMBS"); and

(c) Any other CMBS that may be selected by the Bank for analysis under this Agreement.

The Bank will identify the TALF-Eligible Legacy CMBS and Downgraded/Negative Watch Legacy CMBS to the Collateral Monitor by CUSIP. The TALF-Eligible Legacy CMBS, Downgraded/Negative Watch Legacy CMBS and all other CMBS that may be analyzed under this Schedule A are collectively referred to as the "Analyzed CMBS".

2. Valuation Scenarios. Promptly following execution of this Agreement, the Collateral Monitor shall:

(a) Identify the 26 valuation curves generated from its CMBS analytical models for each industry-standard commercial real estate sector, which includes distinct valuation curves for the following sectors: retail, multi-family, office, industrial, lodging, healthcare, warehouse, mobile home, mixed use, land, cooperative housing and other (including, but not limited to, ground leases and parking garages); the Collateral Monitor will apply the foregoing curves to conduct fundamental, bottom-up analysis of each of the loans collateralizing each Analyzed CMBS, including, among other things, each of the peak-to-trough value, trough year and recovery time to current value assumptions that shape the 26 valuation curves for each sector; and

(b) Identify the components of a spreadsheet-based tool that will permit Bank personnel to probability-weight the Collateral Monitor's 26 scenarios in any manner that Bank personnel determine for purposes of the Bank being able to apply its independent valuation and risk assessment for each Analyzed CMBS.

3. Analytics. For each of the TALF-Eligible Legacy CMBS and Downgraded/Negative Watch Legacy CMBS, the Collateral Monitor will apply its 26 scenarios to loans collateralizing the foregoing Analyzed CMBS to determine default and loss severity of such collateral assets. Based on this analysis, for each Analyzed CMBS, the Collateral Monitor will derive 26 estimates of:

(a) Collateral losses as a percentage of collateral balance (i.e., “deal-level” losses);

(b) Tranche losses as a percentage of tranche balance (i.e., Analyzed CMBS CUSIP-level losses);

(c) Weighted average life (WAL); and

(d) Held-to-maturity (“intrinsic”) valuations by discounting projected principal and interest cash flows using the forward LIBOR curve (or such other discount rate selected by the Bank).

4. Identifying and Risk Data. The Collateral Monitor shall provide the Bank with the following summary information for each Analyzed CMBS:

(a) CMBS sector (e.g., conduit);

The Collateral Monitor will also provide the Bank with access to its standard “Top Loan Report”, which includes risk reporting for the 15 largest loans, delinquent, special serviced and high loss loans backing each Analyzed CMBS. The Collateral Monitor will also provide the Bank with a spreadsheet-based tool to probability-weight the Collateral Monitor’s 26 scenarios in any manner that Bank personnel determine appropriate to independently stress value each Analyzed CMBS.

6. Transparency in Assumptions & Methodology; Consultation. Upon request, the Collateral Monitor shall provide to the Bank underlying macro-economic and micro-economic assumptions and variables used in connection with the 26 valuation curves employed to provide the measures set out in Section 3 above (e.g., peak-to-trough value decline by property type, capitalization rates, loan extension and workout assumptions). The Collateral Monitor shall make available appropriate personnel to meet with Bank staff to provide consultation and interpretation of analytical results, assumptions and methodologies.
7. Deliverable Dates for Valuation & Loss Projections. The Collateral Monitor will calculate the valuation and estimated loss measures set forth in Section 3, and provide the information set forth in Section 4, pursuant to the following schedule:

Conflict of Interest, Confidentiality, Privacy and Risk Management Procedures and Policies for the FRB-NY’s TALF Program

Purpose

BlackRock Financial Management, Inc. (the “Company”) has been selected by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (“FRB-NY”) to provide certain analytical, reporting, valuation and advisory services related to commercial mortgage backed securities in connection with the TALF Program (such services, the “TALF Services”).

In the performance of such TALF Services for the FRB-NY, certain Company employees and independent contractors engaged by the Company, if applicable, may have access to confidential information and may be placed in a position that could potentially create a conflict of interest. The FRB-NY has required the Company to maintain ethical wall procedures in connection with such services that are intended to protect the confidentiality of such information and mitigate any conflicts of interest by implementing measures designed to restrict access to such information by the Company personnel not involved in providing the TALF Services to the FRB-NY. The FRB-NY has also required the Company to maintain risk management, risk event, reporting, and business continuity policies and procedures in connection with the TALF Program.

Summary

Company employees and independent contractors engaged by the Company, if applicable, providing the TALF Services (or otherwise provided with confidential information related to the TALF Program, including such persons who sit atop of the ethical wall or straddle the ethical wall) to the FRB-NY shall be classified as “Restricted Persons”. Restricted Persons will be required to maintain the confidentiality of the information they receive. This is a critical component of the Company’s provision of the TALF Services.

Restricted Persons shall not discuss or share with anyone other than a Restricted Person, the FRB-NY and its representatives, any Confidential Information (as defined in the Collateral Monitor Agreement, dated as of February 16, 2010, between the Company and the FRB-NY relating to the TALF Program (the “TALF Collateral Monitor Agreement”)) that is obtained while working in the capacity as a Restricted Person (“TALF Program Confidential Information”), whether obtained through the TALF Program, the FRB-NY, a contractor or agent of the TALF Program or otherwise.

Restricted Persons shall perform all work related to the TALF Program in a location segregated from other general trading, brokerage, sales or other activities that might be in conflict with the Company’s duty to the FRB-NY to perform TALF Services (provided that TALF Team Members need not be segregated from personnel providing services with respect to the BlackRock Solutions advisory businesses except when performing the TALF Services as described below).
In addition, as set forth below, Restricted Persons will be prohibited from (A) purchasing, advising or directing any other Collateral Monitor personnel to purchase, the Restricted CMBS on behalf of the Collateral Monitor, its affiliates or any of their respective clients (but excluding with respect to the FRB-NY under the Other Bank Agreements) or (B) purchasing Restricted CMBS (as defined in the TALF Collateral Monitor Agreement) for his or her personal accounts, in each case for the applicable restriction period set forth in the TALF Collateral Monitor Agreement.

Procedures

Identification of Restricted Persons

The Company will identify as Restricted Persons those employees assigned to provide the TALF Services to the FRB-NY (or otherwise provided with TALF Program Confidential Information). The Company’s Compliance Department shall maintain a list of Restricted Persons, including the date he or she became a Restricted Person, as well as the date of removal from the list. The inclusion of any person on such list shall be subject to the prior approval of the FRB-NY. Upon request, the Company shall provide such list of Restricted Persons to the FRB-NY.

All Restricted Persons shall have been informed of the confidential nature of the TALF Program Confidential Information, and specifically, the Company’s obligations with respect thereto, and will be required to complete an acknowledgement of compliance with the Code of Ethics and Insider Trading Policy and Procedures.

Each Restricted Person shall participate in and complete compliance training regarding these procedures. The Compliance Department will keep a record of the completion of such training.

Confidentiality Obligations

All Company employees and independent contractors engaged by the Company, if applicable, who are Restricted Persons shall be prohibited from discussing or sharing TALF Program Confidential Information with any Company representative who is not a Restricted Person, or with any non-Company personnel other than the FRB-NY and its designated representatives and subcontractors.

Termination of Restricted Person Status

A Restricted Person shall be subject to the restrictions of this policy until such time as the earlier of (a) the Company’s Chief Compliance Officer (“CCO”) has determined he/she no longer has access to TALF Program Confidential Information and (b) six weeks after the Termination Date (as defined in the TALF Collateral Monitor Agreement). Upon such a determination or event, the Restricted Person shall be removed from Restricted Person list. However, even after removal from the Restricted Person list, such persons shall continue to be subject to confidentiality obligations, and may not disclose TALF Program Confidential Information to non-Restricted Persons.
Segregation of Restricted Persons

Restricted Persons, when performing the TALF Services, will work in a physical location(s) that is/are segregated from the general trading, brokercage, sales or activities and the activities of BlackRock Solutions advisory businesses. The CCO will determine the functions and personnel that are required to be so segregated, in each case consistent with the Company’s information barrier policies and procedures. Key factors to be considered in such determination will include the sensitivity and nature of the work being performed. The TALF Services may be performed only in the segregated location(s). To the extent that a Restricted Person also performs functions unrelated to the TALF Program, such non-TALF related work may be performed outside of the segregated physical location, provided that such Restricted Person must observe ‘TALF’ Program confidentiality requirements at all times.

Restricted Persons providing the TALF Services shall have computers kept in the segregated physical location(s) and all work related in any way to the TALF Services will be conducted only in such segregated physical location(s). Moreover, the Company will direct Restricted Persons to save Records in their secure file directories which are only accessible to Restricted Persons.

Restricted Persons may not remove any TALF Program Confidential Information from the segregated location(s) unless appropriate precautions are taken to ensure that such TALF Program Confidential Information remains secure. All discussions of TALF Program Confidential Information shall be conducted in the segregated location or in an appropriate alternative secured area.

A Restricted Person that no longer is considered to have TALF Program Confidential Information or access to such TALF Program Confidential Information will be removed from the list and identified as non-restricted.

Restrictions Applicable to Restricted Persons

Due to the sensitive nature of the information obtained as a result of the engagement with the TALF Program and the potential for conflicts of interest, Restricted Persons shall be prohibited from (A) purchasing for himself or herself the Restricted CMBS, without prior consent of the Chief Compliance Officer of FRB-NY or (B) purchasing, advising or directing any other Collateral Monitor personnel to purchase, the Restricted CMBS on behalf of the Collateral Monitor, its affiliates or their respective clients (but excluding with respect to the FRB-NY under the Other Bank Agreements) (provided that the Collateral Monitor and such individual TALF Team Members who sit atop of the ethical wall or straddle the ethical wall may provide such services as part of the Collateral Monitor’s and such TALF Team Member’s normal and usual business; provided, further that such TALF Team Member does not disclose Confidential Information in performing such services). Such Special Restricted Persons may resume performing these functions for other clients in accordance with restrictions in the TALF Collateral Monitor Agreement.

TALF Team Members shall refrain from accessing non-public information regarding specific securities in other client accounts managed by Company’s affiliates in its Portfolio Management Group (which conducts its traditional asset management business), including the nature of specific client holdings or pending client trades and any non-public intention to direct, effect or recommend a transaction in a specific security in other specific client accounts. TALF Team Members may have access to and participate in discussions concerning research and BlackRock Solutions analytic support (including analytical tools and portfolio and risk management systems) produced by the Company, as long as such research, tools and systems do not provide information with respect to specific holdings in other client accounts managed by Company affiliates or, if they do provide access to such information, the TALF Team Members shall refrain from accessing non-public information regarding specific holdings in other client accounts managed by Company affiliates in its Portfolio Management Group).

Delegates and Third Party Vendors

Restricted Persons may discuss TALF Program Confidential Information with any delegate or third party vendor; provided that (i) such delegate or third party vendor shall have been approved by the FRB-NY and shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement related to the TALF Program Confidential Information that is substantially similar to Section 5.1(c) of the TALF Collateral Monitor Agreement prior to any such discussions, and (ii) the employees of any such delegate or third party vendor that will receive TALF Program Confidential Information have been made aware of the confidentiality restrictions. The Company shall maintain an up-to-date list of such employees of any such delegates and third-party vendors.

Personal Trading by Restricted Persons
