

Community Advisory Group
Federal Reserve Bank of New York
Conference Room E, 11th Floor
October 08, 2024; 10:00 AM-12:00 PM EDT

AGENDA

10:00am-10:10pm	Welcome Remarks, John C. Williams, President and CEO
10:10am-10:25am	New Member Introductions, Mendi Blue Paca, Fairfield County's Community Foundation, and Michelle de la Uz, Fifth Avenue Committee
10:25am-10:30am	Overview of US Economic Conditions, Giorgio Topa, Economic Research Advisor, Labor and Product Market Studies, Research & Statistics
10:30am-10:35am	Overview of Regional Economic Conditions, Andrew Haughwout, Director of Household and Public Policy Research, Research & Statistics
10:35am-11:00am	Presentation: What's Possible: Investing NOW For Prosperous, Sustainable Neighborhoods , Claire Kramer Mills and Javier Silva, New York Fed Community Development
11:00am-11:55am	Roundtable Discussion facilitated by David Erickson, Chair, Talor Crawford, Co-Secretariat, and Julian Macrone, Co-Secretariat 1. How has economic activity in your part of the district responded to recent changes in monetary policy? How are expectations adjusting to the prospect of policy normalization? What would a "soft landing" mean to your communities? 2. Are businesses more or less optimistic about the economic outlook than they were six months ago, or twelve months ago? What trends are you noticing in hiring and the labor market? 3. What from your view proved surprising in Q3 2024 and early Q4? 4. Have your communities started to see additional investment or economic activity spurred by recent climate legislation? What, if any trends are emerging regarding the effect of weather and disasters in your communities? 5. Where might there be opportunities to leverage climate finance and related resources to make new markets in your communities?
11:55am-12:00pm	Concluding Remarks, John C. Williams, President and CEO