1. Indicate the name of the imaging system:

Indicate the name of the Third-Party Custodian (“TPC”) and provide its address:

2. Please list the types of documents (e.g., promissory notes, appraisals, credit agreements, etc.) that are imaged and stored. Describe how documents are imaged (e.g., by whom, what technology is used, etc.). If the imaging process is outsourced, please indicate this in your response along with the name of the service provider.

3. Explain how and with what frequency the accuracy and completeness of the imaging process is tested.

¹ Loans issued and guaranteed by the Small Business Administration, the U.S. Department of Education, the Export Import Bank of the United States, or the Rural Housing Service. Only the guaranteed portion of the US Agency Guaranteed loans will receive the guaranteed margin and be included in this type of BIC.
4. Is the image and store process audited?  □ Yes  □ No
   If yes, indicate audit frequency and provide audit report (if not already provided with BIC certification).
   If no, please explain why not.

5. Describe how imaged document files are named, stored and accessed.

6. Describe how the ability to alter or delete imaged documents is controlled and how such alterations or deletions are tracked.

7. Describe your institution’s contingency arrangements for access to imaged documents.

8. How long does your institution retain original documentation before sending it to the TPC? Where is the original documentation stored before it is sent to the TPC?

9. Describe the physical storage facility of the TPC. Please explain how documents are protected from loss, fire, theft, and other dangers.

10. Indicate how frequently the original documents are recalled from the TPC?

11. How does your institution ensure that documents continue to be stored at the TPC and have not been lost or misplaced?

12. For loans that are actively pledged, please provide the TPC location and box numbers of the documents.
