DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Proposed Collections; Comment Requests

AGENCY: Departmental Offices; Department of the Treasury.

SUMMARY: The Department of the Treasury, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork burdens, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to comment on an information collection that is due for extension approval by the Office of Management and Budget. The Office of International Affairs of the Department of the Treasury is soliciting comments concerning extension without change of the following three related forms:

DATES: Written comments should be received on or before January 16, 2024 to be assured of consideration.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the proposed forms and instructions are available on the Federal Register. The forms collect data on the foreign exchange spot, forward, futures, and financial market positions of major market participants, and provide information regarding foreign currency transactions conducted by a United States person or a foreign person controlled by a United States person.

The filing of Foreign Currency Forms FC–1, FC–2, and FC–3 is pursuant to (31 U.S.C. 5315, which directs the Secretary of the Treasury to prescribe regulations (31 CFR 128, subpart C), requiring reports on foreign currency transactions conducted by a United States person or a foreign person controlled by a United States person.

Numerous capital and operating costs for Federal Reserve banks to maintain and purchase services to automate the collection of the data; and (e) estimates of capital or start-up costs of operation, maintenance and purchase of services to provide information.

(3) Whether the collection of information will not have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the above estimates of the burdens; (c) ways to enhance the quality, usefulness and clarity of the information to be collected; (d) ways to minimize the burden of responding to the collection; and (e) estimates of capital or start-up costs of operations.

Wayne H. Lin, Assistant Secretary, Office of International Affairs, Department of the Treasury.
